AN ACT TO ESTABLISH ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICTS AS THE AREAS OF AUTHORITY OF GOVERNMENT AGENTS, TO EFFECT AND TO PROVIDE FOR THE EFFECTING OF CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENTS IN OTHER WRITTEN LAW, AND TO PROVIDE FOR PURPOSES CONNECTED WITH THE MATTERS AFORESAID.

[Date of Assent: April 14, 1955]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Representatives of Ceylon in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Administrative Districts Act, No. 22 of 1955.

Short title.

2. (1) The Administrative Districts specified in the First Schedule to this Act are hereby established.

Establishment of Administrative Districts.

(2) The limits of each Administrative District specified in column 1 of the First Schedule to this Act shall, subject to any alterations made therein under section 3, be those specified in the corresponding entry in column II of that Schedule.

3. An Administrative District may be abolished, a new Administrative District may be established, the limits of an Administrative District may be altered, and the First Schedule to this Act may be amended or replaced with a new Schedule, by a resolution passed by the Senate and the House of Representatives.

Abolition, creation and alteration of the limits, of Administrative Districts, and amendment of the First Schedule.

4. Each Administrative District shall be assigned to a Government Agent as his area of authority instead of a Province.

Assignment of each Administrative District to a Government Agent.

5. Any number of Additional Government Agents, Assistant Government Agents, and Additional Assistant Government Agents may be appointed for an Administrative District.

Appointment of Additional, Assistant, and Additional Assistant Government Agents.

6. This Act shall not be deemed to prevent the continuance of the Provinces of Ceylon, as now constituted or as may hereafter be constituted, for any purpose other than that for which Administrative Districts are established by this Act.

Provinces not to be affected by this Act.

written

7. (1) In any written law, unless the context otherwise requires, the expression "Administrative District" shall mean an Administrative District established by or under this Act.

(2) Every reference in any other written law to a revenue district shall, after the commencement of this Act, be construed as a reference to the Administrative District consisting of the area which constituted that revenue district.

(3) Where any other written law enables or requires the Government Agent of a Province to exercise or perform any power, duty or function, such law shall, after the commencement of this Act, be construed as enabling or requiring the Government Agent of each Administrative District in that Province to exercise or perform that power, duty or function within the limits of that Administrative District.

(4) Where any other written law confers on the Government Agent of a Province the power to make any by-law, regulation, rule, order, notification or notice, such law shall, after the commencement of this Act, be construed as conferring power on the Government Agent of each Administrative District in that Province to make for that Administrative District any such by-law, regulation, rule, order, notification or notice.

(5) Where any other written law confers on the Government Agent of a Province the power to issue any licence, permit, certificate of registration, or other document, such law shall, after the commencement of this Act, be construed as conferring power on the Government Agent of each Administrative District in that Province to issue for that Administrative District any such licence, permit, certificate of registration or other document.

(6) Where any other written law confers on the Government Agent of a Province the power to determine any fees or charges, such law shall, after the commencement of this Act, be construed as conferring on the Government Agent of each Administrative District in that Province the power to determine for that Administrative District any such fees or charges.

(7) Where any other written law requires any such notice, information, declaration, return or other document as relates to any matter in any part of a Province to be delivered, sent or given to the Government Agent of that Province, such law shall, after the commencement of this Act, be construed as requiring that notice, information, declaration, return or other document to be delivered, sent or given to the Government Agent of the Administrative District within which that part of that Province lies.

(8) Every reference to the Government Agent, Western Province, in the Victoria Home for the Incurables Incorporation Ordinance, No. 7 of 1903, shall, after the commencement of this Act, be construed as a reference to the Government Agent of the Administrative District of Colombo.

8. (1) The written laws specified in column I of the Second Schedule to this Act are hereby amended in the manner specified in column II of that Schedule.

Amendment of other written law, etc.

(2) The Minister may by Order published in the Gazette make such amendments in any other written law, or make such provision in regard to any matter, as may be necessary in consequence of the provisions of this Act. Every Order made by the Minister under this sub-section and published in the Gazette shall have the force of law.

9. (1) This Act shall not be deemed to affect the operation of any by-law, regulation, rule, order, notification or notice made by the Government Agent of a Province under any other written law before the commencement of this Act.

Savings.

(2) This Act shall not be deemed to affect the continuance in force of any licence, permit, certificate of registration or other document issued, and the validity of any instrument executed, by the Government Agent of a Province before the commencement of this Act.

(3) Where the Government Agent of a Province has, before the commencement of this Act, determined any fees or charges by virtue of the power conferred on him by any other written law, such determination shall not be affected by this Act.

(4) Where any act or thing is commenced by the Government Agent of a Province under any other written law in any part of that Province and is not completed before the commencement of this Act, that act or thing may be carried on and completed by the Government Agent of the Administrative District within which that part of that Province lies.
